Perspective

High Fidelity User Testing

Qu Zhun
Jonathan Bragg
Lin Xu
Nancy Taing
MISSION STATEMENT

To have customers gain a deep understanding of the cultural and historical implications of topics, by exploring diverse perspectives shared by people around the world.
Perspective is...

- a platform for sharing and exploring first-hand accounts from around the world
Overview

- Heuristic Evaluation Feedback
- Redesign
- Tasks & Scenarios
- High-fidelity prototype
- Conclusion
Heuristic Eval Feedback

Summary: 46 Problems!
1. Sorted by severity level
2. Sorted by Page (Ex. Main, Search, Topic, Viewing...etc.)
3. Create Solutions!

-EX. VIEWING PAGE
  - +New Perspective look different. (16)
    Make the same? Both necessary?
    ○ ONLY TOP. One in viewing screen unnecessary.
  - +Marking points/Annotations
    (notes+system creates montage from markings)
Redesign

Simplify - Get rid of unnecessary functions
   (Zoom, More "leaves," emotion filter...etc)

Clarify  Sun? Basket??
   No Sun. Basket= Collections into box (logo)

Make functions more intuitive
Tasks

- Explore a topic (simple)
  - Browse

- Share a perspective (medium)
  - Record
  - Track

- Synthesize perspectives (complex)
  - Collect
  - Annotate
Task 1: EXPLORE

A student is learning about a topic in history class and wants to learn about this topic from different perspectives. She uses our application to learn about this topic, and view a few diverse perspectives in order to gain broader understandings of the cultural implications.
Japanese Internment
1057 Perspectives

Grandfather's Journal
“No one knew where we were going or for how long.”

Apologies
“Everyone told me not to trust them.”

Overview for topic

Perspectives from: All Storytellers
George Takei on the Japanese Internment Camps During WWII

Pat Morita USA. M. Actor. 68

Japanese-American talks about how the camps separated his family from their grandpa and his limited understanding as a child.
Task 2: RECORD

A veteran has a strong desire to share his perspective on an event in history he has lived through. He is satisfied to find out how his perspective contributes to a better understanding of that event by others.
JAPANESE INTERNMENT

1057 PERSPECTIVES

OVERVIEW FOR TOPIC

GRANDFATHER’S JOURNAL
“No one knew where we were going or for how long.”

APOLOGIES
“Everyone told me not to trust them.”

PERSPECTIVES FROM: ALL STORYTELLERS
JAPANESE INTERNMENT
1057 PERSPECTIVES

PERSPECTIVES FROM: ALL STORYTELLERS
George Takei on the Japanese Internment Camps During WWII

Japanese-American talks about how the camps separated his family from ...
Task 3: SYNTHESIZE

A student is researching for a paper that synthesizes many aspects related to a broad topic in history. He searches for varying perspectives across multiple topics while marking & collecting them in an organized manner.
JAPANESE INTERNMENT

GREATFATHER’S JOURNAL
“No one knew where we were going or for how long.”

APOLOGIES
“Everyone told me not to trust them.”

OVERVIEW FOR TOPIC

PERSPECTIVES FROM: ALL STORYTELLERS
George Takei on the Japanese Internment Camps During WWII

Pat Morita USA. M. Actor. 68

Japanese-American talks about how the camps separated his family from their grandpa and his limited understanding as a child.
George Takei on the Japanese Internment Camps During WWII

Pat Morita USA. M. Actor. 68

Japanese-American talks about how the camps separated his family from their grandpa and his limited understanding as a child.
George Takei on the Japanese Internment Camps During WWII

Pat Morita USA. M. Actor. 68

Japanese-American talks about how the camps separated his family from their grandpa and his limited understanding as a child.
Conclusion

● Simplify - Get rid of unnecessary functions
  ● Clarify
● Make functions more intuitive

Create a platform that inspires curiosity and develops understanding in varying views of the same topic.